We are living in a time when serious bible study and learning is very much neglected and as a result its has left the Christian open to error and distraction from the work The Lord Jesus Christ has called us to do. There is a failure to understand that God has given us a bible that teaches the fall of man, his total depravity and the need for the grace of God to deliver and save men from sin, death and hell. Lack of knowledge ha leaf some to believe they save them selves by their free will and they get involved with speculation about last days of the world, and are unaware that the book of Revelation is a prophecy about those things that were about to come the pass during the days of the Apostles and the end of the age governed by the Law of Moses. and pointing to the age to come which is our current Christian age. This lack of understanding can be address a review of the doctrines of salvation taught, known as soteriology, since the protestant reformation and a review of the biblical teaching of fulfilled prophecy known as eschatology. Those event spoken of in the book of revelation are all past events and not future and have nothing to do with national Israel today. This lack of knowledge has resulted in all manor of conspiracy theories about Israel the rise of Antichrist doctrine or teaching that are the doctrines of devils and seducing spirits. 1 Timothy 4:1,

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. All of which has taken place.

This lack of understanding can be addressed by reviewing the reformed teaching or doctrine of salvation t salvation (soteriology) and a re-look a the biblical view of last things referred to as fulfilled Eschatology.

And James Stuart Russell gives a very good introduction to the subject of fulfilled Prophecy, in his book the Parousia which you may access via the link provided at the bottom of this video.

And now there is a current teaching about fallen angels that before the time of Noah they mated with women giving birth to hybrid human creatures. This is wrong.

It has become clear to me that this recent generation of men and so called scholars, have not understood what the bible teaches about the being of God, and they are turning men away from the truth. They invent new ideas and new words to introduce their false teachings. The result being that those men who have no real knowledge of the God, because they have not studied their bible properly are easily taken in and seduced by false their teaching. To facilitate this these so called scholars introduce modern version of the bible leaving their student to doubt and as has God spoken if so in what bible.

So to help circumvent this I have republished Dr John Gills Body of Doctrine divinity , book 1, which treats the subjects of the being of God, the names of God, the attributes of God, the works of God and purposes of God. I HAVE ALSO REPUBLISHED HIS treaties on the doctrine of the trinity, demonstrating there are a trinity of person in God, the father, the Son and The Holy Ghost clearly teaching deity of the Lord Jesus Christ. This treat the many misconceptions relating to the sons of god deals and treats many of the heresies that these modern teachers teach. It is seriously recommend you study what has been written on all these subject as only then will you be able to detect the errors of these new false teachers in our day and age.

Who are the Nephllim and the Sons of God?

A lot of people are getting very distracted with teachings about angels mating with humans and making super-humans or half-angels. In fact, some Bible translations have left the untranslated word, Nephillim, so we have to trust the experts to tell us what it means. Is it possible that God isn't the author of this distraction? Is it possible that the Devil has something to do with this? And is it possible that the Devil is trying to distract us from listening to something important that God is saying to us? If so, what truth is it that Satan trying to distract us from? Would you like to know, all by answering some simple questions? I want to ask some very simple, very direct questions. What you believe is up to you. But you need to have the tools to properly ask and answer these questions.

God the Father and the sons' God

The Bible says that there is God the Father and His only Begotten Son. The Bible also says that there are also those called "the sons of God."

Who are the son's of God?

Who are "the sons of God" in Genesis 6? How do we start? We want to know what God said. So let me read it to you, in a real Bible. Genesis 6:1-2, 4-5

Verse 1 "And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually."

So there are men on the earth. Those men had daughters. The sons of God saw those daughters of men. They were fair. The sons of God took wives of all the daughters of men that they chose. There were giants on the earth in those days. There were also giants on the earth after those days, at the time that the sons of God bare children to the daughters of men. Those were the mighty men which were of old, men of renown. After that, the earth became so wicked that only Noah was found righteous on the earth. That's in verses 8-9.

Five Basic Questions

There are five basic questions we can get from the text.

1. Who were the men?
2. Who were the daughters of those men?
3. Who were the sons of God?
4. Who were the giants (Hebrew, Nephillim)?
5. Were the giants, or Nephillim, the same as those children born to the daughters of men that were wives to sons of God?

Who or What Can You Trust

Walk through this with me slowly. Who or what will you trust to tell you the answers?

Humans Mating with Angels?

If you already believe that angels mated with humans, surprise! There are some Bible version paraphrases made just for you! They literally wrote it into the text! 2002 Message Bible

Let's start with the 2002 Message Bible. It has already been shown that its occultic leanings in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew, when I talked about Baphomet.

This is Genesis 6, verses 1-2 and 4.

1 "When the human race began to increase, with more and more daughters being born,

2 the sons of God noticed that the daughters of men were beautiful. They looked them over and picked out wives for themselves. This was back in the days (and also later) when there were giants in the land. The giants came from the union of the sons of God and the daughters of men. These were the mighty men of ancient lore, the famous ones."

Eugene Peterson 2002

So this is The Message of Eugene Peterson of 2002:

1. The men are the human race
2. The daughters of those men are daughters of the human race
3. The sons of God don't seem to be the human race, but it doesn't say.
4. The Nephillim are giants, like in the King James.
5. The giants are those children that sons of God had with the daughters of the human race. And after this, in verse 5 it says that "God saw that human evil was out of control."

So Eugene Peterson's Message is that sons of God had giant babies with the daughters of the human race. That's one paraphrase.

Another Paraphrase 2012 Voice Bible

Now let's look at the 2012 Voice Bible, Remember, The Voice is written like a big script. It might as well start with "A long time ago, in a galaxy far, far away..." Nonetheless, here's Genesis 6, verses 1-2 and 4

"As human beings began to multiply and spread across the surface of the earth as God commanded, they had lovely daughters.

The sons of God saw how beautiful the humans' daughters were, and they decided to take any daughters they wanted as their wives. Now at that time and for some time to come, a great warrior race lived on the earth. Whenever the sons of God would have sex with the humans' daughters, the women bore them children who became mighty warriors. In the days of old, they became famous heroes, the kind people tell stories about!”

So these are the opinions of The Voice Bible of 2012:

1. The men are human beings.
2. The daughters are the humans’ daughters
3. The sons of God don’t seem to be human beings, but it doesn’t say what they were.
4. The Nephillim were “a great warrior race”
5. The “great warrior race” are those children the sons of God had with the humans’ daughters. And those baby great warriors were only born whenever the sons of God had relations with the humans’ daughters. And after this, it says “evil became the first thought on every mind.”

The Common English Bible 2011

Now let’s look at The Common English Bible of 2011. Genesis 6, verses 1, 2 and 4:

1 “When the number of people started to increase throughout the fertile land, daughters were born to them.

2 The divine beings saw how beautiful these human women were, so they married the ones they chose.

Verse 4 In those days, giants lived on the earth and also afterward, when divine beings and human daughters had sexual relations and gave birth to children. These were the ancient heroes, famous men.”

Opinion Of So Called Scholars

So in the opinion of “120 biblical scholars from 22 faith traditions” for The Common English Bible of 2011:

1. The men are “people”
2. The daughters are “human women”
3. The sons of God are “divine beings”
4. The Nephillim are “giants,” just like in the King James
5. The giants are those children the “divine beings” had with the human women.

And according to verse 5, “The LORD saw that humanity had become thoroughly evil on the earth, and every idea their minds thought up was always completely evil.”

The us of the untranslated word Nephalim (Hebrew)

As I said, a number of other translations, like all of the New Century Version translations, from the English Version for the Deaf, the International Children’s Bible and the generic New Century Version, through the 2014 MEV --Modern English Version, don’t even translate the word “Nephillim.” They just literally put “Nephillim in the text, so you have to trust some scholar to tell you what it means.

Where Do These Paraphrases lead

So where do the paraphrases leave us? We have an interesting story, if true. In short, “the sons of God” or “divine beings” found pretty human wives and made babies. Those babies were giants or a “great warrior race.” And after that, the whole world went wicked, except for one man who pleased God, named Noah. They claim that somehow, the entire world went wicked, once angels picked out women and made powerful babies. Is that the way the story goes? Are these paraphrases smarter than a 5th grader?

Lets Ask A Few Questions

Or can I ask a few simple questions that will blow this story to shreds? Are you ready? Here we go.

1 Can angels make baby angels? What verse in the Bible says angels can make baby angels? If you don't get that from the Bible, what book do you get that from? Let me help you out. There are three groups: believers, heathen and pagans. Believers believe and follow God. Heathen don't follow God. Pagans follow other gods. So if you don't get this story from the Bible, did it come from heathen or pagans? And why would you trust heathen or pagan writings to interpret the Bible?

2 Do angels have men's private body parts? For angels to make baby angels, they have to have private body parts. For angels to make baby humans with women, they have to have men's private body parts. Not only that, but angels would have to make baby angels the same way humans make baby humans. And angels would have to have physically-compatible DNA. What clear Bible verses state that angels have men's private body parts? And if it's not in the Bible, do you get it from a heathen book, or a pagan one?

What Book Does It Come From

Why do you trust that book more than the Bible? And wait. I thought angels were spirits, like in Psalm 104:4 and Hebrews 1:7. Hebrews 1:14 says, 14 “Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?” Jesus the Only begotten Son created the angels, so He should know what's true. He Himself said, in Luke 24:39, 39 “...for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.” So angels, which are spirits, don't have flesh and bones. And I thought that angels don't marry and aren't given in marriage. Like it says in Mark 12:25: 25 “For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage;” (talking about the resurrection) “but are as the angels which are in heaven.” And there couldn't be unwed angels' babies running around. That's just silly. God ordained marriage -- but evidently, only for earthly life, nowhere else.

So if angels do not make baby angels, angels do not have private parts, angels do not have human flesh, human bones or human DNA, how could they make human babies? How could spirit beings mate with physical women and have human babies? What verse of the Bible says that? And if it's not there, what heathen or pagan book says that? And why would you believe that book over the Bible?

3. Why would God make them able to do that? Why would God make that even possible? Now that you think about it, does that story even make sense? But what else could it possibly mean? You can see that I don't trust these paraphrases. They leave me with a situation that makes no sense at all, as soon as I start asking questions. There are no baby angels in the Bible. God did not create angels to mate with humans or even marry, in the Bible. Realize that I am placing my faith in the verses of the Bible, not in a theory. First and foremost, I want every word that God said.

No Paraphrase Wanted

I don't want a paraphrase. You just saw how man's opinions created a whole fairy tale story. So I need a literal Bible, with only what God said, nothing added, nothing taken away. Otherwise, how will I know if I have what God wanted me to know or not? People could take away what they didn't like and leave it blank or put something else in its place.

Trust In the KJV Text

You already know from my books and my vlogs that I only trust the King James. It's got a 400+ year track record. So let's go with that. And now that we've picked a literal translation, let's start all over again, with a number of questions that people do not commonly seem to ask.

What and When Did It Happen

What happened? And when did this happen? These are from the days after Seth had Enos. Genesis 4:26 says, "And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then began men to call upon the name of the LORD."

The Bible says that Seth has Enos. And after that men, plural, began to call upon the name of the LORD.

So godly society has begun. That's all well and good. This is the beginning of the believers on the earth.

What Happened?

But something happened that was so bad that by the time of the Flood there was only one righteous person left. God revealed to Ezekiel that if Noah had been in Jerusalem in Ezekiel's day, he wouldn't even have saved his own family --just himself. Ezekiel 14:20, "Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.”

What Turned Them

Something made men and families turn away from the Lord by the thousands, maybe millions. Do you realize how effective that was, whatever it was? The Devil must have loved that. If it worked that well for him, the Devil, whatever he did, don't you think he would have done it again? After all, in the Garden of Eden and in the temptation of Jesus Christ, Satan used the three lusts:

The Lust Of The Flesh, The Lust Of The Eye And The Pride Of Life

The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life. Check out Genesis 3, Matthew 4, and 1 John 2:16. The Devil keeps using them even today, over and over again, because it works so well.

What Did the Devil Do?

So the Devil did something so dangerous that it pulled every person on earth away but Noah, and maybe to a lesser extent his family. Whatever this danger is, it worked and sure made the Devil happy. So you've got to believe that he tried it again. That's the Devil's pattern. He repeats what works. If so, then it must be in the Bible. If I look in the Bible and find out that the people of God were turned away, I will probably be able to see what it was that turned their hearts from following God. So what's the first place that tells specifically what could turn the hearts of the people away from following God?

Balak The King Of Moab And Balaam

Look no farther than the fourth book of the Bible, the book of Numbers. In Numbers 22, Balak the king of Moab sent for a diviner named Balaam to come and curse Israel, being led by Moses. He offered piles of riches for this, so Balaam must have been otherwise good at this. But by the end of Numbers 24, God had humiliated the king, the Holy Ghost spoke through Balaam and he totally blessed the 12 tribes of Israel and prophesied parts of the first and second coming (Parousia) of Christ! That didn't go how Balaam expected. He still loved riches. So at the end of Numbers 24, Balaam returned home. But a few chapters later, Balaam is back in the land, this time in Midian, and killed in a battle. What happened?

Why did Balaam come back?

Did he get his riches, after all?

And what turned the heart of the Israelites against God in such a short time?

What Turned The Hearts

A number of Bible verses give us the answers. First, let's go to Numbers 31:7-8. 7 “And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they slew all the males. 8 And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.”

Why? Look at verses 15-16. 15 “And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive? 16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.” So Balaam obviously told them one thing that caused the children of Israel to sin massively. The “counsel of Balaam” “caused the children of Israel” “to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor.” And it obviously involved women. So let’s go back to Numbers 25 to find out what happened.

1 “And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

2 And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

3 And Israel joined himself unto Baalpeor: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel.” So “the people” (obviously men) “began to commit whoredom with” who? “...the daughters of Moab.” And what was the result of the followers of God committing whoredom with the daughters of Moab, who were pagans? “And they” (the Moabites) called the people (the men of Israel) unto the sacrifices of their gods; and the people did eat, and bowed down unto their gods.

Israel Joined To Baalpeor

And Israel joined himself unto Baalpeor...” Wait. What? In no time, people who were following God, with Moses alive as their leader, started having relations with the daughters of the pagan Moabites --and the next thing you know, they’re bowing to the Moabites’ gods! And not only that --they “joined themselves to Baalpeor”! That means they got into a covenant relationship with the Moabites’ gods, and not only that, they forsook --turned their hearts from-- the Lord their God! Wow! That was so easy! And so fast! And so many. That is why God told Moses in Deuteronomy 17:17, regarding the future kings of Israel: “Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away...” And yet, despite this rule, that every king had to write down by hand (see verses 18-19), the wisest king in the world --fell for it! 1 Kings 11:1 “But king Solomon loved many strange women...

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away” his what? “His heart.” What turned away this man of God’s heart? The daughters of pagan kings. Are you detecting a pattern here? And did you notice that God said, “SURELY they will turn away your heart after their gods?” It wasn’t even a question! It was a certainty! Obviously, Satan was overjoyed! And obviously, he continued this pattern.

The Pattern Repeats After Babylon Captivity

After the Israelites began returning from the Babylonian captivity, after 536 BC, they messed up again! Take a look at Ezra 10:2-3.

2 “And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them...” The men of God married the daughters of the heathen and the pagans, who bore children to them.

Lesson Not Learned

You’ve got to be kidding me. They still hadn’t learned their lesson? Now look at Nehemiah 13:23, decades later. In fact, read the next few verses, just the odd ones. 23 “In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: 25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves. 27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives? 29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.”

Defiled The Priesthood

So once again, the priests of God defiled the priesthood by what? Marrying the daughters of the pagans. Could this same pattern be true for Christians today? Let’s take a look.

An Unequal Yoke

In 2 Corinthians 6:14 “Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? 15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? 16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, 18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.” And 1 Corinthians 6:15, “Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.” Sure, if a married couple were unsaved and one of them gets saved, it sanctifies the children if the unsaved decides not to leave. 1 Corinthians 7:14, “For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.”

Marry An Unbeliever

But that does not say Christians should “missionary date” or marry an unbeliever. Finally, look at the last book of the Bible, in the letter from Jesus to the church at Pergamos.

Doctrine Of Balaam

Revelation 2:14 “But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.” There you have it. In the last book of the Bible, there are still men fornicating with pagan women, following the “doctrine” or teaching of Balaam --which has caused so many to quickly turn their hearts from the Lord. Do you suppose that what Genesis 6 really does is give us the beginning of the very pattern that Satan used to pull away the hearts of the people of God throughout the Bible? There are no Bible verses (count them --zero!) warning us of a danger of humans cohabiting with angels.

Warning About The Dangers of Marring

But there are many Bible verses warning us about the danger of the hearts of the men of God being turned away by the daughters of pagan men. Not only that, there are entire chapters and stories devoted to telling us how it happened, what it did, and what had to be done about it. Do you suppose that the Devil is using the story that “Nephillim are human-angelic hybrids of the union of fallen angels and women,” to distract us from the real danger, of the people of God’s hearts being turned away to follow pagan gods, by being unequally yoked with unbelieving daughters of men? The supernatural scenario is in no clear verses of the Bible. People have to imply them, like in paraphrases, or go to pagan or heathen books, to find that story. But the natural scenario, the real and present danger is all throughout the Bible, in plain sight. And yet Christians keep uniting with non-believers, as if missionary dating or marriage is suddenly supposed to work. You can believe what you want, but I believe what my Bible says, God's preserved words in English, the King James Bible.

Sons of God In Genesis Were Believing Men

And from all the rest of the Bible, From Genesis 6 on says, I think, that God's people, the godly line descended from Seth through Enos, who called upon the name of the Lord, eventually had their hearts turned away from God. Why? Because they fell in love with the beautiful but unbelieving daughters of men, married them, and had children. The Bible says the giants were already there. So their union can't have made the giants. That's not what the text of God's words says. But the Nephillim were giants. And finally, if the union of godly men, sons of God, and daughters of men, unbelievers, produced great leaders, it makes sense that they could cause a wholesale defection of their followers, other sons of God, and of most of the godly community, to turn their hearts away from following God, just as you see throughout history. That defection was so bad, that finally, there was only one man left who truly sought God. He was a righteous man who walked with God. His name was Noah. And the rest, as they say, is history. I'm going to trust the Bible story, not the pagans' fairy tale. You can, too, if you want. God bless you, and have a wonderful day.
